Jan 19 2025 Its any videos private browsing or regular browsing. Seems to be tied to ip address number somehow

Seattle Washington server is blocked from watching unless logged in but Vancouver British Columbia is not Oct 5 2006 In three years of whale watching out of San Francisco and four years of teaching in local national parks and marine sanctuaries Ive never heard of nor seen a lemon shark in San Francisco Bay or the surrounding waters including the Gulf of the Farallones and other local estuaries such as Tomales Bay Drakes Estero etc Mar 14 2025 This morning I got this youtube short in my feed showing barnacles being removed from a whale at sea

Finally something good happening! But I found the scenario surprising enough to google a bit into it and of course its AI. Watching again knowing it is not real the only thing I can see is that the bit where the barnacles are coming off is too much and the brush is different for the Oct 13 2025 The viewer feels like were watching a bottle episode since there are apparently only two people now working for the Institute and they just float around in some sets built ten years ago

Finally I have to say that even Sean Pertwee who I like immensely cannot save this series. Back in the dumpster for this series Mar 21 2025 For the last month or so Ive been arriving home after school and finding my Roku TV turned on and in screen saver mode

At first I thought maybe that in my half comatose waking state I didnt notice that I had left it on when I went to bed and left with it still on in the morning. Nope

Im absolutely sure I am turning it off when I go to bed and finding it still off in the morning Jul 27 2017 I remember seeing bumper stickers in the 80s that were an amalgam of many common bumper stickers at the time. They read Nuke a gay whale for Jesus

Nuke the gay whales for Christs sake is a phrase I remember from the early 80s Apr 23 2025 Could a sperm whale bite off just the bottom half of one leg? I would think that if your legs were anywhere near a chomping whale that youd lose more than that Nov 2 2025 Not seeing much movement WRT the federal shutdown

In another thread someone mentioned the upcoming elections as potentially encouraging some movement by suggesting voter sympathies

Do you expect that to be the case? If so any particular races you are watching? Jul 10 2001 Whale penises called dorks yes when called a dork in grade school you were actually being compared to a whale schlong are the largest in the world the blue whale being the champ with phalli approximately 10 ft
